Dear Tobin Families,

I am thrilled to announce that Tobin Montessori School has been selected to host the Third Annual 2016 Montessori for Social Justice Conference! This conference is aimed at “Building the Public Montessori Movement and Advancing Educational Equity.” This conference provides a forum for educator and family collaboration around the integration of best practices and Montessori curriculum. Making Montessori education more accessible for all children is at the heart of this conference, and this has been our goal since the inception of our program in 2007.

Last June, Erin Gutierrez, the Montessori Resource Teacher, and Joanne Cleary, the Math Coach, attended this conference in Salt Lake City, Utah. During their time at the conference, they were given the opportunity to have an open dialogue with educators from all over the country around the challenges and celebrations---unique to a Public Montessori School. The depth of knowledge they gained about Montessori in the public sector was impressive, and this inspired us to apply to host the conference here in Cambridge.

We are so excited to bring this experience to the entire Tobin Community. The conference registration will be open to all Tobin Staff, Families and Community Members. Please feel free to share the news and invite a friend!

Stay tuned for more information about the 2016 Montessori for Social Justice Conference. Be sure to check our Tobin Montessori Facebook page and the Tobin Weekly Newsletter for continuous updates!

Sincerely,

Jaime Frost
